Directions from Granada to Competa Meeting Point:

From the airport take the main road to Granada. You will pass through a small town called Santa Fe.

Pick up the autovia going south in the direction of Motril. The mountain range (Sierra Nevada) will be on your left hand side. Continue on the autovia all the way to the coast. Motril and Salobrena are the signs to follow. It is approx 40k.

When you reach the coast, turn right the sea is in your left. You are heading in the general direction of Malaga. Continue on this road, you will pass the signs for Almunecar, La Herradura,, Maro, Frigiliana Nerja, and Torrox.

Here take the Torrox exit which is number 285 and follow the signs for Torrox pueblo (village) NOT Costa. Competa is also signposted. This is a right turn at the roundabout. Continue up the mountain. It is about 16 K to Competa

When you approach Competa the road starts to level out. There is a crossroads and on your right is Competa village. You will see the Mirador (orange/brown structure which is the Competa view point). Wait here and we will come to collect you.

Journey time approx 2 hours
